FROM THE RISING OF THE SUN
TO IT'S SETTING,
THE NAME OF THE LORD
IS TO BE PRAISED.

Psalm 113:3

"Praise the Lord!
Praise, O servants of the Lord,
Praise the name of the Lord." Ps. 113: 1

We are joined together in Christ. We live for Him; for God. We serve the Lord - and in our service we glorify Him.

At Ontario Bible College our service is varied. Faculty trains students. Students study and learn. Staff provides for the needs of both.

We work together, but we have fun together, and this also is glorifying to our Lord. Sports, dorm life, even romance are part of our life here.

Leaf through these pages and share our joy, and our lives as we work and play in the Lord to His glory. Let your thoughts dwell on Him, and join us in 1979 as we praise the name of the Lord.

DEDICATION

Mr. and Mrs. Gast first came to O.B.C. in 1973. They came to the College after many years in Strathroy, Ontario where Mr. Gast first worked a farm, then worked in maintenance for several companies. Mrs. Gast, a Registered Nurse's Assistant, worked in two of Strathroy's hospitals.

The Gasts' are familiar figures to O.B.C. students. Mrs. Gast for many years was the College receptionist, and now works in the Stewardship department. Mr. Gast is "Mr. Fix-it", one of our fine maintenance staff.

The Gasts' have three sons -- David (a missionary in Ecuador), Roger (a pastor in St. Catharines), and Karl (who works in the construction industry in London, Ont.).

To you, Mr. and Mrs. Gast, in recognition of your contribution to the College, and in sincere appreciation for your ministry to us, we dedicate this 1979 Ontario Bible College Yearbook.

Thanks

MRS. JEAN GAST
MR. LOREN GAST

SUN OF LIGHT, FIRE OF NIGHT

Sun of light, who is just waiting to meet my fire of night
Where are you?

My soul is demanding things about who you are.
My mind is unconsciously thinking about meeting your warmth.

Maybe you are shining everyday,
Shrouding my whole being, and
My eyes are closed to your light.

The Lord knows: that is my comfort
He gives me strength to keep in
My heart all this Love,

Burning in a peaceful way,
That I can hardly retain,
For my life is longing to share with yours.
And shine, rejoicing together
In the joy of the Lord

PSALM 113

Praise the Lord!
Praise, O servants of the Lord.
Praise the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the name of the Lord
From this time forth and forever.
From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the Lord is to be praised.
The Lord is high above all nations;
His glory is above the heavens.

Who is like the Lord our God,
Who is enthroned on high,
Who humbles Himself to behold
The things that are in heaven and in the earth?
He raises the poor from the dust,
And lifts the needy from the ash heap,
To make them sit with princes,
With the princes of His people.
He makes the barren woman abide in the house
As a joyful mother of children.
PRAISE THE LORD!

A little boy got his haircut today
The locks of time had grown too long
He sat so bravely there staring into the mirror from the barber's chair.

The hand and scissors flew to bring about something new.
A piece of sculpture, you could call it that the shape was different, not as wide and flat.
"Holda still, don'ta move"
the razor on the back of your neck is about to move.

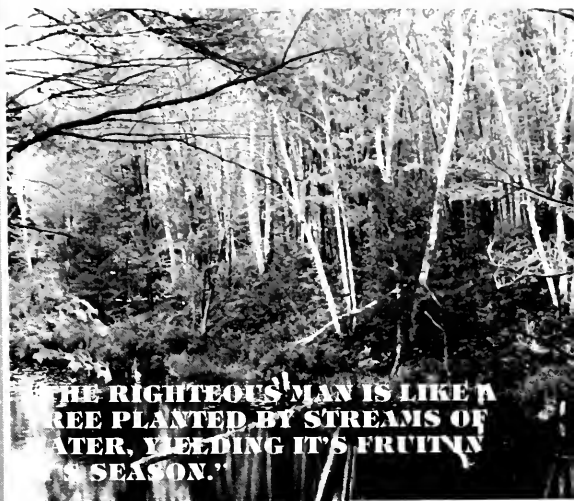

A tear, a sniffle
the finishing touches hurt a little.

In time it is finished
"Howa do you like"
Mom says "too short"
Dad says "just right".

I stop and think
Isn't God like that.
He snips here and cuts there shaving off unwanted hair.
It makes His children cry sometimes
Being sculptured often hurts.
But when all is finished you look better, not diminished.

But people are very strange, some will never see the light
Many always say "too short"
Thank God some say "just right".

THE RIGHTEOUS MAN IS LIKE A TREE PLANTED BY STREAMS OF WATER, YIELDING IT'S FRUIT IN EACH SEASON.'

WHATEVER YOU DO IN WORD OR DEED
DO ALL IN THE NAME OF THE LORD
GIVING THANKS TO GOD THE FATHER
BY HIM.

MESSAGE

from the

PRESIDENT

Victor Adrian

"A HOLY SUMMONS"

"From the rising of the sun to it's setting
The name of the Lord is to be praised." (Ps. 113: 3)

One of the most pleasing sacrifices rising from the altar of the Believer's heart is praise to God! With less complaint and more praise, Believers are happier and God is more glorified. Luther spoke of praise as the Christian's most excellent virtue. May OBC have been for you a place which contributed towards liberating your soul to sing His praise. Only the soul which has delighted itself in the fatness of the Lord, and drunk deeply at the wells of grace in Christ can utter true praise.

We are summoned to PRAISE THE NAME OF THE LORD! His Holy, majestic, gracious character is to be ever before us; His self-revelation and His redemptive and providential deeds, His wonderful promises of hope -- all these are to elicit in each of us genuine praise and adoration.

We are summoned to PRAISE THE LORD CONTINUALLY, His mercies are new each morning! His grace is sufficient for every need and every task. "I am with you", says Christ, "unto the ends of this age."

We are summoned to PRAISE HIM IN ALL THE EARTH -- "From the rising of the sun to its setting". There is no place in all the expanse of God's earth where men and women are not called to honor our God by giving thanks. True praise expresses itself in a deep desire and commitment to see all men praise the only true God!

May indeed the meditation of our hearts and the words of our lips be acceptable in the sight of God our Redeemer.

A WORD from the CHANCELLOR

S. A. Rothman

A PAEAN OF PRAISE

From beginning to end, the psalter is an exhortation to praise God from Whom all blessings flow. Our particular text is, "From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Name of the Lord is to be praised." (Psalm 113: 3)

Matthew Henry once said, "Call a man ungrateful, and you can call him no worse." As we reflect upon God's goodness and His mercy and His grace, our hearts and our lips should automatically sing forth His praises. This joyful note should constantly characterize us, especially as we reflect on the fact that "it is because of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Thy faithfulness." (Lam. 3: 23) Friends may fail us. They may even turn against us. But Scripture reminds us that "there is a Friend Who sticketh closer than a brother." How wonderfully true! Again, our hearts should sing forth His praises.

But most of all, young people, we should praise Him all the day long just because of what He is and Who He is. He is the God Who made us; it was He Who so loved us that He died in our room and stead. Eternity will not be long enough for us to sing His praises. It is of the greatest importance then that we start here and now to tune our hearts to sing His praise.

Bunyan wrote; "O this Lamb of God! He had a whole heaven to Himself, myriads of angels to do His pleasure. But this could not satisfy Him. He must have sinners to share it with Him."

Young people, be praising individuals. Cultivate the habit, and your whole Christian walk and experience will be transformed. Your studies are important, your deportment is something always to be guarded, but this matter of praising the Lord as long as He gives us breath would seem to be priority number one, for all of our other excellencies stem from it.

MATURITY

When you are angry and want to explode, hold your tongue - AND PRAY!
When you must do a tedious job, do it willingly,
cheerfully - AND PRAY!
When you find yourself walking the road of pride, turn about - AND PRAY!
When you're elevated yourself above others,
step down - AND PRAY!
When you feel jealousy rising inside, stop
- AND PRAY!
When you've been wronged and you want to re-pay,
forgive - AND PRAY!
When you encounter temptation, then strive to resist - AND PRAY!
When you're feeling depressed, remember our Lord - AND PRAY!

Peggy Amy

There is power in prayer - prayer changes things!

"Be anxious for nothing, but by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God, and the peace of God which surpasses all comprehensions shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

CHRIST OUR HOPE!

HOPE: a) Trust, reliance; desire accompanied by expectation of belief or fulfillment;
b) Someone on whom hopes are centred.

The Class of '79 has chosen a motto that fulfills the dictionary definition of HOPE. They trust in the Lord, and in Him their hopes are centred.

Christ is our Hope too -- so we congratulate the Class of '79 in being in harmony with all that their Alma Mater believes.

As you live and work in expectation of the fulfillment of the Blessed Hope, may you experience all the goodness and grace of God.

Another year has passed quickly in the life of our OBC family. The Student Council is thankful for the opportunity of serving this year. Certainly not all of our experiences have been joyful, but it is good to remind ourselves that it is God that has been working in our lives doing His good pleasure. To the graduates: "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might." To those remaining: "Being confident ... that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." May we all press on with such a steadfast hope in the future.

Dan Shurr

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVE

CLASS OF '79 EXEC.

For the Christian, worshipping God and serving Him with all of our energy are naturally bound together. It is the natural thing to praise the One Who is above all, and it is natural to want to serve Him - not because in ourselves we are capable of either, but because God has touched our lives with His love and lets us share His glory! May we seek to fulfill these truths in our lives - for great is our God and our hope.

The sun has risen and set and risen again many times as the year has passed. In each new day with which the Lord has privileged us, He has also been faithful. ONE YEAR SPECIAL EXEC .

Our theme for this past year is found in Psalm 34:3. As we remember we see how real these theme verses have been to us. We have heard from our own class members about the peace, joy, understanding, encouragement, patience and excitement we can have; through close relationship with God and fellowship with brothers and sisters. Most of all we must praise God continually for His Son, who died in order that we have life. Till we meet again.

Richard Warnholtz

CLASS OF '81 EXEC.

As President of the class of 81 it has been difficult to deal with over eighty students all having varied personalities. Above all these I found out that praising the Lord in every circumstance is the key to success.

The Psalmist expresses it flawlessly in Ps. 113:3. Every believer who learns to praise the Lord will find his ministry to be full of excitement. Our praises are like "the fragrance of a burnt offering before the Lord."

Ram Kalap

CLASS OF '82 EXEC.

"Every sunrise is a new message from God. Every sunset His signature." Here the Psalmist wishes to make it known that everywhere the name of the Lord is to be praised ... from one end of the earth to the other. The verse above suggests the same in a different way. We praise God for not only who He is, but for the message He gives to men. God is indeed to be praised for all things.

As president of the class of 82 I have great reason to praise God for His work in the lives of the students of our class.

All year our concentration has been on developing our spiritual gifts in relation to our future ministries. Excitement has increased as we anticipate entering the experiences that the Lord has prepared for us. It is essential that we recognize that service for the Lord will mean continually coming before Him in an attitude of homage and commitment.

There is a task before us, we are invited to accomplish it. Let us boldly approach its challenges with the confidence that the Lord is at our right hand.

May God bless our venture into new experiences to extend the Kingdom of God on earth.

It takes two to tangle!

"From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the Lord is to be praised."

The sun rose this September and with it our high hopes, expectations and plans. Were we able to carry everything out, the students would find few times to catch a breath or sleep or study. All the ideas were good, but the Lord allowed us to slow down and accomplish things which were not spectacular but were improvements which we hope will be carried on in future years. The sun is setting on our ministry on Student Council but we want to stand firm to the end of our job, hoping that what we have done will stimulate others in the future.

Teach me, lead me, guide me, Help me work it out.

When I look inside my soul my faith seems so awfully small
And as my life passes by sometimes I feel I'm no use to you at all.

CHORUS

Father in your mercy just hear the words I cannot say
Please turn this dark night of the soul into the dawn of day.

CHORUS

Issues press my mind so hard as I look at this world of sin
Jesus please heal this broken soul and let your Truth flood in.

INTERACTION IS THE KEY:

Interaction was indeed the key at this year's Mission Conference - Interaction between students and missionaries and interaction between students and God. As the theme speaker - Rev. J. R. McQuilkin - spoke on "Christ's Commission is Our Mission" the timeless challenge of service for God was felt by many. Whether in seminars, during the messages, or just plain chatting with our guests we were presented over and over again with our responsibility to serve God wherever and whenever He wants us to, in obedience to Christ.

May this challenge ever burn in our hearts, and may God use each of us and empower us to serve Him gladly.

5—4—3—2—

There are more than 200 million "lost" to God's Word. Maybe you should aim your ship in their direction.

Are you looking for an open door of service? Check with us. Our current list of personnel requests from various fields numbers over 700 and includes a great variety of skills. Approximately 60 percent of Wycliffe's members are engaged in non-translation roles such as literacy, teaching, trades and office work.

Do languages fascinate you? (Or does learning a new language frighten you?) Our Summer Institute of Linguistics can help you through accredited university courses in language learning and analysis. We also teach translation and literacy principles as well as culture orientation.

The world is before you...and in it are people lacking even the basics—no form of writing, no Scriptures, no relevant witness for Christ. Do you want a real challenge?

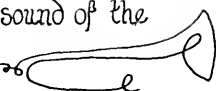

... write to us!

You've finished your training, you've "laid your life open to the will of God", make your next step "finding out for sure" by taking the Summer Institute of Linguistics this summer

The College can provide you with knowledge but it is "Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God" (1 Cor. 1:24) Who alone can transform the lives of people and establish His Church. The Canadian Bible Society seeks to place the written Word of God in the hands of all people so they may be confronted with the Risen Christ Who is the central figure of the Scriptures.

The Canadian Bible Society distributes over six million Scriptures in 75 languages in Canada each year and annually provides $1,000,000 for the TRANSLATION, PUBLICATION, and DISTRIBUTION of the Word of God in 150 other countries.

THOUGHT on PRAISE

from the faculty and staff

LET EVERYTHING THAT HATH BREATH PRAISE THE LORD

Oh Lord our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth!
Who has set Thy glory above the heavens.

Who is like unto Thee, Glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Thou in Thy mercy has led forth the people which Thou has redeemed; Thou hast guided them in Thy strength unto Thy holy habitation.

Thou art worthy Oh Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for Thou has created all things and for Thy pleasure they are and were created.

Blessed be the name of the Lord ----- from the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

(Wilson Flanagan)

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Now, therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.
I Chron. 29:11-13

(Gwyn Hay)

In a world that is preoccupied with materialism how will men ever come to a point where they will praise God? You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.
Matt. 5:14-16

(Rod Wilson)

Be still and know that I am God.
Ps. 46:10

(John Wilkinson)

I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods.
Ps. 34:1, 96:4

(Mary Winborn)

Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me.
Ps. 50:23

(Helen Hofstetter)
